

Doby Verrolec

Specialised Engineering Services

Custom Profiles and Pressings

- Full in-house production facility with over 50 years experience.
- Roll tool design, rollformed profiles and pressed components
- We are able to provide our customers with a unique tailor made service.
- Very high quality close tolerance part and tool manufacture.
- Press capacities up to 200 tonnes available.
- Quality Assurance Certifications BS EN ISO 9001 & BS EN ISO 14001.
- Division produces Customer specific Rollformed Profiles and Pressed Components.
- Design engineers, toolmakers and machinists are experts in their respective fields.

Rollformed Profiles and Pressed Components

Doby Verrolecs Engineering Services Division produces Customer specific Rollformed Profiles and Pressed Components. Our well-established experience in the metal forming industry ensures that we understand and deliver our customers' requirements with confidence, whilst ensuring that the most cost effective principles are applied.

which we operate, for example, the automotive industry, office furniture, storage systems, construction and the building sector, where we have established a strong reputation and competitive edge.

The versatility of our purpose designed custom profile manufacturing facility allows us the flexibility of producing cold rolled pre-pierced and post pierced sections in a wide range of materials. With press capacities up to 200 tonnes available to customers, a vast range of components can be produced, our in-house tooling and design facility provides customers with the ultimate flexibility. Customer confidentiality is maintained throughout the process. The flexibility of our manufacturing capabilities is evident from the wide range of niche markets in

Doby Verrolec

